Welcome to Folkets Møde 2019

In 2018, we celebrated volunteering and active citizenship in Aarhus. As European Volunteering Capital, we hosted the Folkets Møde Volunteering Festival, which celebrated and recognized the many different ways we contribute to the development of our society as volunteers and active citizens.

And we're doing so again this year at the Folkets Møde Volunteering Festival 2019. Because in Aarhus, we believe it should be easy, fun and accessible to volunteer and contribute to the development of new paths to welfare.

On Friday September 27, which is also national Volunteer Friday here in Denmark, we'll kick off a fun, productive and inspiring weekend of exploring and celebrating volunteerism and active citizenship when we open the Folkets Møde Volunteering Festival 2019.

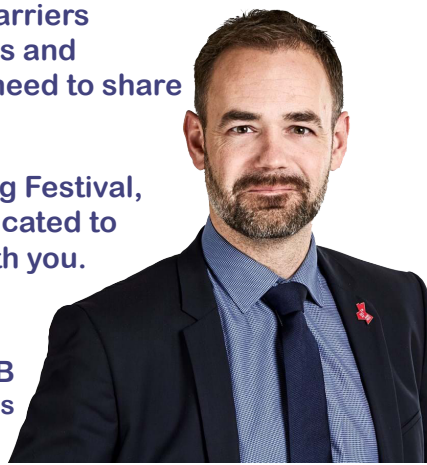

During the weekend, there will be plenty of opportunities to meet, debate and learn from others who are engaged in volunteering and active citizenship.

The purpose of the Folkets Møde Volunteering Festival is to foster democratic debate and create a space for dialogue. We need to talk together, listen to each other and embrace each other's differences. Learn more about What motivates volunteers and how to retain them, and what challenges and barriers citizens, employees, voluntary associations and organizations experience. And finally, we need to share our communities with each other.

On behalf of the Folkets Møde Volunteering Festival, I look forward to spending a weekend dedicated to volunteerism and sharing communities with you.

FOLKETS MØDE - VOLUNTEER FESTIVAL 2018

”The Folkets Møde Festival has been a unique occasion to stop and reflect on topics related to volunteering, which, in our hectic daily routine, we do not have the time to take into consideration, a unique occasion to bring to the surface problems common to many voluntary organizations and an opportunity to celebrate once again Aarhus for its energy and resourcefulness in the voluntary sector.”

”Everything was seasoned with some typical ingredients of the Danish culture: talks which were open to everyone to promote democracy and a non-hierarchical society, child-friendly activities designed for families and dynamic initiatives proposed by the volunteering organisations themselves”
